

Consider One Another
Text: Hebrews 10:24

By
Rev. H. P. Robinson

- I. Consider One Another
 - a. Nothing new because we are always considering or sizing up persons. More often than not we find their faults and talk behind their backs.
 - b. Considering means to sympathize with them. Look at them with a view of helping.
 - c. If they have faults, we are to consider these and help them overcome them. We are to consider their talents and skills with a view to helping them use them better.

- II. Provoke
 - a. Provoke is a strong word.
 - b. It means to draw out or call forth

- III. Provoke Unto Love
 - a. Love is above speech
 - b. Love is above sacrifice

- IV. Provoke to Good Works
 - a. A good work is to build up the Sunday School
 - b. A good work is to support the young people
 - c. A good work is to visit the sick
 - d. A good work is to pray for the missionaries
 - e. A good work is to attend church and worship
