

CHURCH LEADERS CONFER: Members of the executive board of the Pentecostal Holiness Church met at the King Cotton Hotel today to discuss plans for the 15th general conference of the church which opens here Thursday. They are, left to right, seated, Rev. G. D. Yeatts of Greensboro, Western North Carolina Conference superintendent and host; Bishop J. A. Synan of Franklin Springs, Ga., general superintendent; Dr. R. O. Corvin of Tulsa, Okla., general secretary; standing, Rev. R. L. Rex, director of evangelism, assistant general superintendent; Dr. H. P. Robinson of Lake City, S. C., assistant general superintendent; Rev. J. Floyd Williams of Greenville, director of church institutions, assistant general superintendent; Dr. W. H. Turner of Franklin Springs, executive director of foreign missions, assistant general superintendent, and Rev. A. D. Beacham of Franklin Springs, general treasurer. (Special Staff photo.)

al Jury s 33 Bills

and jury meeting
turned 33 true bills
before recessing

bills charged vio-
eral internal reve-
ting to the manu-
essing, transport-
g of nontaxpaid

d Pennell and Teasley were possessing and 570 gallons of
isky last April 5
ty.

n Prevette and
n Rogers were
the same viola-
gallons of the il-
ily 18 in Chatham

ctment charged
chel Boldin and
e with possessing
g 96 gallons of last April 7 in

expected to con-
0 bills before it
this afternoon
orning.

Georgia Bishop Named To Post By Churchmen

Bishop J. A. Synan of Franklin Springs, Ga., general superintendent of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, was named chairman of the general board of administration of the church at a meeting of its members this morning at King Cotton Hotel.

Assignments of the assistant general superintendents were also announced. They are Rev.
J. Floyd Williams, Greenville, vice chairman and director of world missions; Rev. R. L. Rex, Oklahoma City, Okla., director of evangelism and church extension; Rev. B. E. Underwood, Dublin, Va., director of church institutions and chairman of the general board of education and
Rev. H. P. Robinson, Lake City,
S. C., director of publications board and chairman of co-ordinating committee.

New board chairmen are Rev.
G. D. Yeatts, Greensboro, benevolent homes; Rev. W. E. Morris, Falcon, superannuation; Dr.
Byon A. Jones, Ocala, Fla., commission on armed forces and
Rev. A. M. Long of Franklin Springs, public relations.

Injur Mar

Four per
ized—one of
dition—after
last night of
the county

City T Traffic

City of Gre
a descriptive
way," to ex
pattern, whic
morning of
out some of the change.

There will
the folder, in
map of the d
current wate
folders will
tendant-opera
downtown Gr
der of the w
concept puts
traffic on G
the north-sou
phasizes Elm
ed that Elm,
traffic, will
less importa
walks are i
effect given
future progr