

SPECIAL BULLETIN

In a joint meeting of our Conference Board and the North Carolina Conference Board on Thursday, December 3, the following items were discussed and tentative plans were made to work out the details for the mutual benefit of both Conferences.

FIRST: The Church of God and the Pentecostal Holiness Church will hold another great HOLINESS CONVENTION in 1965. This is the second such meeting; the first one was held in Charlotte, N. C. at the Church of God State Headquarters. This second one will be held at Falcon, N. C. at the North Carolina Conference Headquarters of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, the date being set for the week following the time set for our Ministers' Conference.

The North Carolina Conference

Board invited our Conference to hold with them a joint PREACHERS' CONFERENCE for two days preceding the Holiness Convention in Falcon. That would mean that our ministers could go to Falcon for the JOINT CONFERENCE Monday night and Tuesday, and stay for the INTER-DENOMINATIONAL HOLINESS CONVENTION Wednesday and Thursday.

There will be a big fellowship supper on Monday night to open the Conference. Room and board will be free for the Bible Conference Monday and Tuesday and through Wednesday noon. Beginning Wednesday night through Thursday, your meals will be served at a reasonable price, but your rooms will be free for the entire time.

You will have to take your own bed linens, etc.

SECOND: Next year, the North Carolina Conference will come to our Camp Ground and share with us in our Bible Conference. This plan is for fellowship, spiritual inspiration, and mutual promotion for both of our Conferences. It is hoped that every preacher will appreciate this adjustment of plans and attend.

THIRD: Since we had already secured Rev. John W. Swails and Rev. Bernard Underwood for our speakers, the North Carolina Board agreed to use them for the joint Conference.

It is our belief that this exchange of Bible Conferences will make for better understanding, deeper appreciation, and a more wholesome perspective of ideas and soul enrichment for Preachers of both Conferences.

A more detailed explanation will be given at District Conference.

CENTRAL DISTRICT FELLOWSHIP SURPRISES SUPERINTENDENT WITH SHOWER

At a recent meeting of the Ministers of the Central District, they surprised the Conference Superintendent with a Sportsman's shower.

It was unique in that I have never heard of a shower of that kind. It was surprising because it was not my birthday or even a special occasion.

It was greatly appreciated because it was prompted by thoughtfulness and appreciation.

Rev. Reese Miles is the president, Rev. Walter McCutcheon is the Vice-President, and Rev. W. C. Gandy is the Secretary-Treasurer. These men, with the other fine Pastors, Evangelists, and Mission Workers of the District are doing a fine job of promoting fellowship, Evangelism, and Conf. loyalty in the Central District.

I take this opportunity to express my deepest gratitude for this thoughtful gesture.

The picture will give you some idea of the variety of fishing and hunting equipment I received.
