OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA, PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CONFERENCE

January, 1961

That Majestic Fraternity

By Rev. H. P. Robinson

You are a PREACHER. That being true, there are certain privileges and advantages that you enjoy that belong to no other profession.

You had nothing to do with choosing this profession. There is not the slightest chance that the One who selected you for this profession made a mistake.

You represent the oldest and largest business concern known to man. You will never have to worry about losing your job; as long as there is one man alive on this earth, there will be a demand and need for your services.

Economic conditions will not affect your employment. If we have national prosperity, you will still have work. If we have a depression, your services will still be needed.

In a sense, you are your own boss. You do not have to punch a time clock. You can set your own hours of work. You cannot resign. You cannot quit and do something else; you were born to this end.

Your job never becomes monotonous. There are no two days just alike. In one day, you may be called upon to visit a mother with a new born babe; give guidance to a person who has just become a Christian; talk with a high school student about their life's work; unite a couple in holy matrimony; tell some sinner how to get to Christ; comfort a person who is bereaved; talk to a person and help prepare them for a serious operation; listen to the last words of a dying patient, say the final words over a deceased friend; or counsel a man and woman whose marriage is about to be broken up.

Your role in society has been conditioned by two thousand years of the Christian ministry. The best men who have ever lived have been your forerunners. "Therefore you come to your task in the strength of a great heritage."

If you backslide, people will always think of you as a preacher; if you are lost in hell, you will be a preacher in hell.

In all eternity, YOU WILL BE A PREACHER.

Things I would like to see accomplished at

The Coming Annual Conference

This next Annual Conference may well be called the MID-TERM ANNUAL CONFERENCE since it comes in the middle of the two-year pastoral assignments.

There might be a tendency to show less interest and concern for the business of the Conference since there will be no election of officials and only a minimum of pastoral changes. In reality, the exact opposite should be the case. Such an arrangement offers a natural opportunity for accelerated promotion, fellowship, and consecration instead of so much legislation.

These are some things I would like to see accomplished at this Conference:

1. Every preacher and church reporting.
2. Full attendance at all business sessions.
3. A careful reevaluation of our present Committee reports, with a view to pointing up their practical values rather than changing them.
4. Less Legislation and more promotion.
5. Reaffirmation of our Doctrines and standards and our allegiance to them.
6. A clarification and acceleration of our Evangelistic plan.
7. One Hundred percent participation in our Conference Insurance program.

Ministers' Bible and Prayer Conference

The highlight of our Conference year is almost upon us: The Bible Conference.

Every effort has been exerted to make this a real profitable, spiritually inspiring convocation.

We have secured some of the finest speakers who have made a success in their chosen vocations.

The only thing necessary to making this the best Bible Conference yet is for you to be present.

The Bible lecturers are Dr. Paul F. Beacham and Dr. H. T. Spence.

Other guest speakers are, Robert Quesenberry, Solicitor; Mrs. Swanee Duesenberry, Social Security Administrator; John Byrd, State Overseer of North Carolina Church of God; an official of the Christian Action Council, and others of our own Conference.

You and your wife can come to Lake City and stay four days, eat, sleep and enjoy the best fellowship on earth for only $5.00.

We'll expect you

Churches May Vote For Pastor

It is understood that your last pastoral assignments were for two years. Instead of for twelve months it was for twenty-four months.

However, in a case where a church or a pastor feels that a change is absolutely necessary, the church board or pastor should contact the Superintendent and arrangements will be made for a vote to be taken.

You must remember that a change at this Conference will be a change in the middle of your assignment.

Where an emergency exists, the Superintendent should be contacted as early as possible before the Annual Conference.

Thank You

These words seem so inadequate to express how I feel toward the ministers and churches of this Conference for your cooperation with the proposed program thus far.

Your support and participation in the Simultaneous revival is nothing short of phenomenal. Such loyalty is its own reward to the individual and is one of the vital factors in the advancement of the cause of Christ in the South Carolina Conference.

Your loyalty and support has set a new precedent in the Pentecostal Holiness Church and has brought our Conference into the national limelight, not only in the Pentecostal Holiness Church, but also in other Pentecostal bodies.

Our Church and its Mission

Individual worth is at an all time low. THE PARTY, THE SYSTEM, THE MACHINE, take top priority. The trend is toward the amalgamation of all races, creeds, and churches, with the line between ideologies, doctrines, and convictions becoming dimmer and dimmer.

More and more, the hideous evils of Communism are being whitewashed and camouflaged by our own Government Officials until the average American is coming to accept it as a system with many virtues and advantages.

The idea of one world church is also becoming so popular until people who do not have a burning personal experience of salvation are looking with favor upon such a merger of all denominations.

The history of the bloody persecution of all non-conformists by the Roman Catholic Church for a thousand years is now being muffled and minimized to the point that this generation is forgetting the price that was paid in blood and human sacrifice to preserve our religious freedom.

In our own denomination, many men are measuring their success, service, and relationship to the church in dollars and cents. They are making comparison of our church, its buildings, its social standing, its prestige, its cultural advantages, with the older denominations. Naturally, in such a comparison, we come off in a bad light.

They forget that the great denominations have a history of hundreds of years behind them, that they have wealth, culture, training and have long since been accepted as popular among the elite.

They also forget that we are in our infancy, that we are not accepted on the common level with the great, proud, denominations. We are still a sect; but thank God, we have a mission to men, a Divine task to perform. We have been commissioned as custodians of the great, heart-warming experiences of Regeneration, Sanctification, as a second definite work of grace, the Baptism with the Holy Ghost and fire with speaking with other tongues as the Spirit gives utterance.

There are multiplied thousands of lost, dying men and women over this world that these larger churches will never reach with a message of truth, and a testimony of a heartfelt experience with God. They will go to hell if we don't reach and win them.

The time has come for us to stop making comparisons or contrasts with other older and larger churches. It is time to look to our own task, to fulfill our own commission before Jesus comes.

District Conference Scheduled

Because of the pre-Easter crowded schedule of our pastors and churches the District Conferences have been changed to begin on the third of April rather than the thirtieth of March.

This being the last session of Conferences before our Annual Conference it will be absolutely necessary for every preacher and church to be present to be briefed on the plans and procedures of our Conference.

For the first time in many years, the Camp Meeting and Conference will be held in conjunction with each other. This is because four big quadrennial meetings of our church will be held this year and will give us so little time for Camp Meeting and Conference.

The places and dates of the District Conferences are:

Central District, April 3, Camp Branch Church, F. B. McKenzie, Pastor.

Coastal District, April 4, Conway Church, L. P. Joyner, Pastor.

Pee Dee District, April 6, Bennettsville Church, C. T. Powell, Pastor.

Twin River District, April 7, Bamberg Church, Sam Pressley, Pastor.

Piedmont District, April 10, Great Falls Church, R. E. Baxley, Pastor.

Tidewater District, April 11, St. Andrews Church, A. C. Dennis, Pastor.

Examining Committee

The new Examining Committee has been nominated in keeping with the mandates of the last Annual Conference replacing all of the present committee with new members.

For license: Willard Neese,

Woodrow Gatlin, C. B. Edwards.

For ordination: D. A. McKenzie, Martin Flegel, Arthur Graham.

According to the Discipline and the ruling of the Bishop, the Conference Superintendent is required to sit as chairman of these Committees in the same sense that he serves as Chairman of the Stationing Committee.

Anyone having correspondence with either Committee may contact the Conference office.

Zealous Pastors

The majority of the preachers of our Conference are good, hard-working, enthusiastic pastors, doing a splendid job in their pastorates.

However, according to reports, there are some pastors who are not content just to pastor one little church. They are so zealous that they pastor three churches: the one that they are assigned to, the one that they used to pastor, and the one they are expecting to be assigned to next Conference.

I am sure that it takes a lot of getting around to look after three churches. I firmly believe that if these preachers would put all of their time on the church they have now, that the pastor who succeeds them will have a better church, and when they get to the one they are looking forward to pastoring, it will be a better church.

Revival Reports Good

From all sections of the Conference, the reports are coming in regarding results from our Simultaneous revival. One aspect has developed this time that has proven very helpful and produced good results.

Several churches located in one particular area have gone together and supported one united revival; that is, three or four pastors have brought their congregations together and supported a big community revival. I have received reports from two such meetings with a great harvest of souls.

Some of the other individual churches have had to extend their meetings because of the great revival spirit.

General Lifeliners & S. S. Convention

General Conventions in Our Golden Jubilee Year

Our Quadrennial GENERAL LIFELINERS and SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTIONS in 1961, our church's Year of Golden Jubilee, promise to be the biggest and best in the history of these departments of our church. LIFE-LINERS date is June 28—July 1; SUNDAY SCHOOL immediately follows, July 2-5.

The GENERAL CONVENTIONS will be held in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, in the new Del City High School, 1900 Sunnyland Rd. The fully air-conditioned auditorium has seating capacity of 1470, most modern stage, lighting and equipment. There is adequate facilities for workshops, displays and exhibits—and plenty of free parking space. Oklahoma is making every possible arrangement for our comfort and Spiritual pleasure. (Housing Chairman, Rev. Levurn Dryden, 2821 S. Central, Oklahoma City 9, Okla.)

The LIFELINERS CONVENTION is being structured to be a SHARING TIME—a sharing of plans, programs, operations that have been successfully used in various conferences. Bane T. Underwood, Gen. Lifeliners Director, says: "This Convention is anchored to the 'Rock,' charted to the times, and sails set ONWARD. It is a Convention for Youth, to meet Youth's needs and problems and Youth will be used."

The SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION is being structured so that every person present—delegate and visitor—will be a PARTICIPANT. Karl W. Bunkley, Gen. S. S. President, says, "The anticipation and readiness which we sense from our people for this Convention, and enthusiasm expressed by responses and cooperation from our delegates, workshop leaders, special speakers and other helpers, seem to indicate our people are straining every sinew to make our General Convention informative, constructive, challenging, Spiritual—and send us all home to DOUBLE IN A DECADE."

Business sessions will evaluate activities and materials and map programs and procedures for progress and improvements within our Youth and Sunday School Departments.

There will be Panel Discussions, Visual Demonstrations, Live Visual Presentations, Workshops, Exhibits and Inspiring Speakers. The Conventions are geared so that delegates and visitors will not only be inspired to DO, and told WHAT SHOULD BE DONE, but also be told and shown HOW TO DO IT. H. P. Robinson, Chairman of Gen. Christian Education Board, and Conference Superintendent of South Carolina Conference says, "I feel these Conventions will be history-making for the Pentecostal Holiness Church."

Preachers and laymen, form car-pools. Come to the Conventions. Churches, send at least your pastor and wife, S. S. Superintendent and Lifeliners Director. You'll have a better church for these key leaders having been at the GENERAL LIFELINERS AND SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTIONS.

Woman's Auxiliary Department

By MRS. H. P. ROBINSON, Conf. Pres.

First, I would like to take this opportunity to thank each one of you who remembered me with prayers, cards, or gifts during my recent illness. My recovery has been very slow, and I still have not regained my strength, but I do feel that each day finds me greatly improved. May the Lord bless you for your thoughtfulness of me during my illness.

District W. A. Rallies To Convene

You will find in the Conference Department of the Challenge the time and place of our next round of Rallies. It is with regret that I announce that I will be unable to attend this round of Rallies. Your District Director will have charge, and my prayers will be with you that this may be the best round you have had yet.

W. A. Woman of the Year

Now is the time to select your W. A. Woman of the year and send in her name together with the proper letters to the Conference Office. Don't delay to do this right away and mail them to the office by May 1st.

Subscription Contest Ends

Remember to bring the results of your Subscription Contest to the District Rally. If you cannot have your W. A. present, send them immediately to the District Director so that she can count them in the District-wide contest. The W. A. securing the most Subscriptions of the Advocate, Helping Hand, and Lifeline since January 1st will be rewarded.

W. A. Convention Nears

As our Annual Convention nears, plans are in the making for a most inspirational time of fellowship and benefit to us all. Make your plans now to have your entire W. A. Board attend, together with your delegate and all other members who can go. It will be at 8:00 p. m. on June 20th. The Fellowship Banquet at night will be omitted because the Camp Meeting will be in progress. Plan now to attend.

Success With Pioneer Girls

By Mrs. Becky Dunahoe

The first time I heard of Pioneer Girls was in Savannah, Georgia. I was there with a Girl Scout Troop, and on the same floor of our hotel was a field representative of Pioneer Girls with a group of Colonists. Coincidentally, that same day, Pioneer Girls was being introduced to our Conference at Lake City, South Carolina.

As I have worked with the youth of our church, I have observed the multiplicity of their needs. It has been a real revelation to me to know that there is an organization that has the answer to the individual girl's problems. Pioneer Girls may meet a personality problem of one girl. It may provide a new hobby for another and for all it offers spiritual guidance. The Pal Program, which gives each girl an adult "Pal," is a wonderful plan which may lead many of our girls to know Jesus Christ as their own Saviour.

Our Pioneer Girls were organized in July, 1960. Mrs. J. E. Litchfield, Mrs. B. D. Harmon, and I gathered our girls together from respective churches: Rehoboth, Johnsonville, and Hemingway, and with seventeen girls at our initial meeting, we felt that we had gotten off to a good start. Hemingway is now Fortalice number 3147, and our membership has increased to fifty!

During the Christmas season when our towns were having their parades, our Pioneer Girls were right in two of them with their covered wagon float. Behind the covered wagon (the insignia of Pioneer Girls), the girls with their neat blue and white uniforms, rode on another float. They made a very impressive sight, and since Pioneer Girls is relatively new in this part of the country, they created much conversation among the onlookers.

At each meeting the girls bring "shares," money which is put into the bank to go toward their week at Camp Cherith. The first Sunday of Pioneer Girls Week, we received an offering in each church to send to Pioneer Girls headquarters.

Pioneer Girls is for every age, beginning with the Pilgrims, Colonists, Explorers, Guides, Committee Members, and Pals reach almost every girl and woman in the church. Church behavior, personal hygiene, spiritual growth, nature study, missions, church loyalty, cooking, gardening, good sportsmanship, Bible reading, choosing wholesome reading materials, camping, fine arts, music appreciation, soul-winning, and many other areas are covered in Pioneer Girls.

Any church who would like to organize may do so by contacting the field representatives of their district, who will be happy to help in starting this program for their girls. We have found Pioneer Girls to be a must in our church. We hope many others will too.

S. C. CONFERENCE ORGANIZES PIONEER GIRLS

The C. E. Director appointed a committee of three: Miss Becky Dunahoe, Mrs. Pearlina Driggers with Mrs. H. P. Robinson as Chairman. This committee selected three capable women from each District to act as a promotional committee for the Pioneer Girls in their District. The Chairman of each of these committees is designated as a Field Representative.

The following Pioneer Girls District Committees have been asked to obtain and study the program thoroughly, put on District workshops, and be available to give individual help to the local churches in organizing groups:

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

L. D. DRIGGERS, Director

Trained Teachers

By J. D. Simmons

From the Sunday School section last month the law of growth was highlighted. This immediately brought up the question, "where do we get the teachers if we divide classes and add new ones?" This question has prompted the article for this month, TRAINED TEACHERS, read it carefully and prayerfully.

Simply listing personnel needs and asking for volunteers from the pulpit may produce no response or may produce those who lack qualifications and fitness for service. To run down the aisle on Sunday morning and grab "just any one," hurry him off to a class, amid protests, is equally risky. Workers must be prayerfully and carefully discovered, enlisted, and trained if the important ministries of Christian Education are to be Christ-honoring and life-molding.

It is not hard to discover potential workers that need to be trained. You have them in your church—have you discovered them? Why not take the Church roll down and go through it prayerfully and you will be surprised at the workers you have who are living useless lives. Put the finger on them and introduce them to a training program. They are waiting to be asked. How about those eager primaries and juniors, don't discourage them, use them and make them ready for a training program in the future. When you notice a young person responding for dedication, put them to work or you will lose them. Use them as assistant teachers, and that means use them at least once a month before the class.

Always be prepared for a negative response from some. But if the approach is right the negatives will be few. Challenge them with the fact that this work will outlast the stars. Also that their subjects are worth more than all the money in the world. Let them know that they become partners with God in a work which He wants done. Clinch it with the fact that they will be serving as channels through which God can change lives of others.

After you have enlisted these persons, the next step is to help them to see the importance of training for this important task. We must not overlook the necessity of consecration on the part of these we enlist, but to get the job done right, these sisters, CONSECRATION AND TRAINING, must join hands. Really, the degree to which the leader applies himself to preparation indicates the measure of his consecration.

Sunday School's number one need today is trained leadership.

There must be developed more new teachers and workers to close the ranks and spaces through which many are slipping from us. We are losing too many from our Sunday Schools to our churches.

HOW CAN WE MOTIVATE CHRISTIANS TO TAKE TRAINING FOR THE LORD'S SERVICE? Here is the answer. When the pastor and the superintendent become enthusiastically sold on leadership training, they can commend it to the church. It has been said that enthusiasm is contagious. This is the missing link in many of our churches, void of enthusiasm.

News has reached me in the last month of other churches beginning the E. T. T. A. Course in their church. This is a sign of progress in the Sunday Schools of the South Carolina Conference. How about it pastor, have you talked it over with your superintendent yet? We must remember, we are ministering to a different generation from 30, 40, 50 years ago. They look for an intelligent presentation of the Book on Sunday. We can give it to them by training our teachers.

Train for effective Christian leadership the E. T. T. A. way. Write today for your free packet, Karl Bunkley, Franklin Springs, Georgia. He will send you upon request your free E. T. T. A. packet. TRAIN THEM TO WIN THEM.

Where Do Young People Go Sunday Night?

By J. S. Crocker, Lifeliners
Director

One of the alarming things that is taking place in many of our churches today is the absence of young people on Sunday night. It has become a popular thing to attend Sunday School, and many are realizing the importance of staying for morning worship; but far too often our youth are nowhere near our services on Sunday night.

What is the reason for this lack of interest? The answer is found in that forging question. Lack of Interest.

So often our youth stay home because their service is not interesting to them. We must remember that the Lifeliners service is for young people and it should be such that they will be interested in. Also, parents should be interested in their children enough to encourage them to attend. Let's always remember that our youth are the Lifeline of the church.

Another reason for absence is the competition from things outside the church, Sunday night T. V. programs are no friend to the church and Drive-Ins are stealing many of our youth on Sunday night. Many young people are not in church on Sunday night because

Mother and Dad don't attend, and even some Sunday School teachers are absent from church on Sunday night. Oh, that we could realize that how we train our children today is the way they are going to act tomorrow.
