

BLINDED WINDS
II Cor. 4:4

I. By Whom Are Men Blinded. "The god of this world."

- a. The extent of his territory. "This world." A wide domain. Wherever man is, Satan goes. He receives homage of the world.
- b. The extent of his power. "Prince of the power of the air." He projects himself into the most sacred places, some of God come together. The ruler of darkness.
- c. The time of his reign. "God of this age."

II. To What Are Men Blinded. "The light of the glorious gospel of Christ."

- a. The gospel light is a revealing light. It penetrates the unreal; shows the nature of sins; shows the remedy of sin.
- b. The gospel is a guiding light, by it we can find the right way in life. The gospel is a lamp under our feet, etc.
- c. The gospel is a glorious light. It reveals the glory of God, of Christ, and of all the privileges of the Christian here and hereafter.

III. How Men Are Blinded. "Hath blinded the minds of them which believe not."

- a. By substituting wealth, fame, sinful pleasures, etc.
- b. By diversion.
- c. By failing to read the Word and pray.
